Ethical Issues: Theoretical & Applied

June 4-8, 2018

Organized by

Friderik Klampfer (Univ. of Maribor) & Justin Weinberg (Univ. of South Carolina)

with the collaboration of Danilo Šuster (Univ. of Maribor),

Nenad Misšević (Univ. of Maribor/CEU) & Matjaž Potrč (Univ. of Ljubljana)

Institutional Sponsors: Dept. of Philosophy, University of Maribor (Slovenia) and DAF, Slovenian Society for Analytic Philosophy

The conference is officially included in the program of the activities of the Slovenian Society for Analytic Philosophy.

History. Philosophical conferences at Bled (Slovenia) were initiated, on the suggestion by John Biro, in 1993, at first as a continuation of the IUC - Dubrovnik postgraduate course in philosophy but they gradually started a life of their own, with the help, first of Eugene Mills and then Mylan Engel, Jr. They typically take place during the first week of June and are dedicated to various topics in analytic philosophy.
